Ursulmas

January 27, 2006 to January 29, 2006 - Aquaterra

Snohomish County, WA

Autocrat: Her Ladyship Adrianna MacAverr

The Barony of Aquaterra invites you to the 24th Festival of St. Ursul. The Ursulmas Tournaments will be held Saturday. The Bearmeat Tournament will be Sunday. The Over 40 Tournament is to be scheduled. Arts and Sciences, Archery, Thrown Weapons, and other events will be available. There will be merchants available to purchase the finest wares and entertainers at various times and places. A Living History display will be featured for those wishing to show their skills and talents, or those wishing to learn something new. The event will be at the Evergreen State Fairgrounds, 14005 179th Ave SW, Monroe, WA 98272. RV space is available by reservation. RV fees are not included in site fees. Please contact the Reservocrat for more information. Crash space is available on site. (No tents or curtains are allowed in the sleeping halls due to fire regulations.)

St. Ursul will be recruiting for his crusade. Please bring all recruits to the recruiting station. (ie: donations gladly accepted for the Teddy Bear Patrol. A drop off point is usually at Heralds Point. Teddy Bears will be donated to local police and or fire agencies.)

Volunteers are needed for Gate, Constabulary, Chirurgeon, Heralding, Marshalling, Chatelaine's Table, Gold Key, Set up and/or Take down, and at the Living History display. Your assistance is greatly appreciated toward making this the best Ursulmas ever. If everyone gives just two hours, very few should need to work more.

Greetings all within the shire,

It is my hope that you are now able to move again after a full feast of thanks last week.

I send Lord Seamus a belated birthday wish, it was the 24th, and did not get on the calendar. When I saw him at the market, I swear he looks younger instead of older, so he must be privy to a highland secret of longevity!

Although the winter months find us with less camping events than summer, much activity still occurs within many manors of the shire. There has been ongoing Culinary Guild meetings, the next one being tomorrow evening at the home of the Campbell's in Crumbacher 7 pm, standard Dregate time. If you have any interest in medieval cooking, consider attending the meeting. For one thing, there is always a new recipe to test! Right now recipe for Red Lantern. Also, Ambergard has asked our Culinary guild to do the tavern food at Oasis War, how's that for word fame?! Contact HL Dubheasa if you would like to contribute or help out in any way.

Next, the Charter Meeting which is on the calendar for Thursday Nov 1st, will be postponed until next Thursday, the 7th. It will still be held at the Carrick manor in Omak at 7pm. My apologies on the postponement, schedule conflicts have arose that couldn't be helped.

I would like all Champions, past and present, and those who may aspire to become champions, to think about what you feel the Rights and Responsibilities of a Champion should be. It would be best to include these in the Charter for all to see. It is outlined sketchily, and could be fleshed out for better clarity. If you are able to attend the meeting bring your ideas with you, if not please email them to me so that they can be presented on your behalf.

Anyone interested in providing entertainment during the feast please email HL Megen O'Meagher at jeanh@epicnet.org

Yule Feast

December 10, 2005

Vulkanfeldt

Yakima - Yakima County, WA

Autocrat: Megen O'Meagher

'Tis the Season for celebration! The Barony of Vulkanfeldt welcomes the populace of An Tir to our annual, but first baronial, Yule Feast. Come join us for a day of fighting and feasting. Once again we will host prize tournaments for the heavy and rapier fighters, with the possibility of an archery tournament depending on the weather. One of the fabulous prizes will be a period tent made and donated by Sgt. Sqr. Tai Tjorkillsdatr. After the tournaments have concluded please join their Royal Majesties and their Royal Highnesses for a three remove feast prepared by the Truly Tasty Chefs of Vulkanfeldt!

NO OUTSIDE ALCOHOL WILL BE PERMITTED! There will be a no host bar with drinks available for purchase from the Fraternal Order of the Eagles at the feast.

Site fee $12.00 for adults 14 & up, $8.00 for ages 6 – 13, ages 5 and under are free, and the $3.00 non-member fee will be in effect. Make checks payable to SCA, Inc. Barony of Vulkanfeldt. Due to limited space, please send reservations by December 1, 2005 to HL Megen O'Meagher, PO Box 244, Parker WA 98939, or email to: jeanh@epicnet.org. This is just for reservations; site fee will be collected at gate.

Site Info: Gate opens at 10:00AM and closes at 10:00PM. Armor inspection starts at 11:00AM and fighting begins at 12:00PM. Feast hall opens at 2:00PM and food will be served at 5:00PM. Address: Toppenish Armory, 326 S. Division

I would like to report that I made the trip to the Tir Righ investiture with Lady Jullila, and it was a spectacle to behold, seeing Prince Ulf and Princess Amanda set the Storm Thrones. The standing ovation could be heard across the land, and the grace which the Princess showed was an ongoing inspiration to all.

Lord Lochlan is continuing his search for an indoor location in Omak, and may have found one, so stay tuned for a final word on this Saturdays scheduled practice.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have other announcements to be made, I am happy to include them in these missives.

Yours in service

Good Day Lords and Ladies of Dregate,

Yule is upon us and to celebrate this joyous time we have our very own Yule Festival taking place this very month in the Village of Tonasket. The Festival shall take place on the 17th Day of December starting at the hour of two and concluding near the evening hour of eight. We shall celebrate in the Tonasket Senior Center and enjoy the taste of many great dishes, that is as long as you bring one!! That's right it's a potluck so bring a dish or dessert for the mere number of 10 people and enjoy.

There shall be a prize for the most festive dressed so let your imagination run.

Public are welcome so bring a friend.

(Optional) A Donation for the local food bank would also be welcome.

Come spread your Yuletide Sprit.

Hey there!

Here's a few photos of my draft mare, Eva. She's a Premium registered Spotted Draft (3/4 percheron). She's about 16.3 hands high, 5 years old, had two BIG foals (she is an excellent broodmare) and is currently under professional training. She is showing all of potential as an eventer (she loves to jump!-alas the poor fences!) and would make an amazing joust mount!! She also has excellent extension and a floating trot to die for. She is a gentle and willing girl and I hate to part with her but I just don't have the right facility here at home and it's pretty pricey to keep her where she is and in professional training. Sigh...I would LOVE to see her with an SCA person that would keep up with her training and take her to SCA events. I would if I could.....anyway, if you know of anyone that would be interested in her, could you please pass this along? I thought of posting her to an SCA equestrian list but I'm not on one. I will be taking more pics of her in action and can give more info to anyone who is interested. Oh ya, I'm currently asking only $5,000.00 Canadian for her. I am going to have her evaluated here in the next week or so which means her price will most likely go up seeing as how she is showing a lot of potential!

I also have a lovely arabian x mare, Dusty, for sale. She's 15, goes English and western, been used as a pony club and therapeutic riding horse and is full of energy. I love this horse!!! She's a bit on the small side, (14.2 hands) but would make an excellent mount for a smaller person (she's perfect for me!) and would be excellent for SCA eventing as she's really fast and turns on a dime!! She's responsive and willing with some good years of experience behind her. I'm only asking $1500.00 for her even though she's worth a lot more for her training and experience alone. Sigh....this kills me to sell these gals but my life is just going in a different direction right now. Ah well. Anyway, here's a few pics of the horses if you know of anyone that would be interested.
